Ask any parent and they'll tell you, having a baby is exhilarating, exhausting, life affirming and life-changing, often at the same time! Those same parents will tell you that no matter how prepared you are, once you return home with your bundle of joy, you'll find you're long on questions and short on time.

The solution for new parents can be found in Donna Holloran's BABYGROUP DVDs. Her child-raising advice has been featured in dozens of publications and websites, including the New York Times, American Baby, Pregnancy Magazine, Fox News and more. Long regarded as the Baby Guru for Hollywood's elite, Holloran has created an intimate and meaningful learning experience for mothers and fathers seeking help navigating challenging new territory as parents and couples. For those unable to secure a coveted slot in one of Donna's groups, this DVD allows you to capture all of the advice, confidence and control you'd find in the live BABYGROUP experience.

BABYGROUP: 0-6 months helps parents of newborns and babies under six months old survive and thrive through the tremendous lifestyle upheaval, concerns and pressures new babies add to even the most structured families.
